

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION
ELEVATOR AND ESCALATOR SAFETY
AWARENESS WEEK

- WHEREAS: Elevators, escalators, and moving walkways enhance mobility and independence for many Georgians; and
- WHEREAS: Elevators, escalators, and moving walkways are easily accessible and frequently used modes of transportation. However, the improper use of these conveyances may result in serious injury; and
- WHEREAS: Children and older adults are the most at-risk for accidents involving elevators, escalators, and moving walkways; and
- WHEREAS: Elevator and Escalator Safety Awareness Week provides an opportunity to increase the general understanding of the safe and proper use of elevators, escalators, and moving walkways in order to reduce the rate of accidents related to their use; and
- WHEREAS: Elevators, escalators, and moving walkways significantly contribute to the quality of life of every Georgian. By promoting public safety awareness of the potential harm caused by improper use of elevators, escalators, or moving walkways, we can better ensure the well-being of Georgia citizens; now
- THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim November 11-17, 2017, as ELEVATOR AND ESCALATOR SAFETY AWARENESS WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 3rd day of November in the year of our Lord two thousand seventeen.
